

DR. B. HOFMEISTER

A Paper on the Use of "CARIBBEAN WATER," of Which the Following is an Abstract:

In speaking of those diseases in which the use of Caribbean Water is indicated I will confine myself to those in which evidence is given for thoroughly established usefulness.

First are to be mentioned diseases of the stomach, among them and above all the true Chronic Catarrhal Inflammation, with substantial changes of the mucous membrane, with ulceration and muscles. The constant motions of the stomach causing pressure and belchings, the irritations of the intestines resulting in catarrh of the bowels, the inflamed mucous membranes are the most fruitful of all known causes of disease. Out of them grow most deadly and liver troubles, diabetes, all rheumatic affections and gout. I have found that the use of this water, in the most simple manner, the intestinal troubles become soothed, and health results from the use of Carlsbad Water. The diuretic effect of this water, its quiet action upon the lining of the stomach, and its healing power upon the inflamed intestines are beyond all praise.

It is well recognized as arising from excess of uric acid in the blood, and is supported by the FAVORABLE ACTION of the

Dr. Lasius, of Teplitz, issued a pamphlet wherein he recognized the great efficacy of Carlsbad water in the treatment of rheumatism, both acute and chronic, when taken COLD.

Carlsbad water is in no sense a mere purgative, as most people believe, but is an alterative and eliminative remedy, which dissolves out tensionic bile, lays irritations and removes obstruction by the bowels, and thus acts as a powerful and non-excessive stimulant as most cathartic remedies do. Its action is certain and a cure when effected is permanent. Not infrequently patients have to use the Sprudal Salt, in addition to the water, as a laxative.

Beware of imitations. The genuine is bottled under the supervision of the city of Carlsbad.

Each bottle has the seal of the city and the name

GOV. HILL SUSTAINED.

The Veto of the Saturday Half-Holiday Repeal Bill Meets With Favor.

[SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.]

ALBANY, May 9.—The editorial which the Governor's veto has been received by the press in a surprising manner. The friends of the capitalist and bankers who expected that there would be a great hullabaloo and that David Bennett Hill would get it warmed from all sides. Instead they find that with one or two exceptions the Republican news

The Democratic papers, none of which helped THE EVENING WORLD in its fight, are now loud in their praise of the Governor. THE EVENING WORLD has demonstrated that, though young, it has power, and nothing but praise is heard of its work.

Senator Kelly was as happy over the veto as the people. "It is a splendid victory for THE EVENING WORLD," said he, "and that bright paper deserves the utmost praise for its gallant battle for the people." He was so full of praise for the editor's action that he was ready to vote in favor of the proposed repeal coincide with mine. I hardly expected that the Governor would consent to a request to veto the bill, and I was glad to see that I had not been disappointed. The thank-women throughout the State are due to THE EVENING WORLD for the grand gift it has made and so gallantly won.

"He it not been for the tremendous public sentiment aroused by both the morning and evening issues of THE WORLD it may be that the Governor would not have ever seen fit to call to veto the bill. He has done so, I believe, in response to the appeals of the toiling masses, and if he never before demonstrated that he was a weak man and he has not failed to do so on this occasion.

"All praise, I say, for Gov. Hill, and THE EVENING WORLD, and a million of working people must join in the song of triumph."

TWO FIREMEN HURT.

Injured by the Fall of an Elevator at the Thirtieth Street Fire.

The accidents which occurred at the burn-

144 West Thirty-ninth street, at 2 a. m. today, are not so serious as the first accidents indicated.

Only two men were injured. One of these, Thomas Murray, of the Insurance port in West Thirtieth street, received an injury to the spine and was badly bruised about the hips. Emanuel Teich, of Goss's left foot and hand, was badly lashed.

The injuries of both men were caused by the fall of the elevator at 134 West Thirty-ninth street, which was taken to the Bellevue Hospital, while Goss, at his own request, was removed to Bellevue.

The buildings burned were the property of the Commercial Union Assurance Co. of New York. Nos. 134 to 138, S. H. Beving, stable; loss, $5,000; 140, Wm. Jones, blacksmith; loss,

The damage was confined chiefly to the upper story, all the horses being saved.

WHY THE PUBLIC APPLAUD.

A Few of the Things Which Have Caught

On Monday it was the first paper to announce the loss of the steamer, Eureka, and in its Sporting

Extra it gave more news of the horse races, baseball games and other sports of the day than any other paper.

Thursday, in an Extra at 11 o'clock, it gave a full story of the death of Nathaniel W. T. Hatch, the news of the death of Nathan Sells and the flood.

The veto of the Saturday Half-Holiday Repeal bill, which was a substantial victory for THE EVENING WORLD, was also announced.

The Sporting Extra contained full accounts of the races at Fimlico, Gutterburg and Lexington and in England. And THE EVENING WORLD was the only paper that told how Tierman made a home run at Indianapolis and won the game for New York.

This morning it may be added that the EXTRA EVENING WOULD contained the 10 o'clock score at the walking match and also an account of the 2nd at Elizabethport, N. J.

FUN FOR AFTER DINNER.

Not Reciprocal.

Mrs. Della Creme (wearily)—I know everything we eat is adulterated, but what can we do, Reginald? We must trust our grocer.

Mr. Reginald Creme (dreadfully)—Ah, yes, Della, very true; and if—oh, if—our grocer would only trust us!

To Order.

City Wife—Haven't you got a nice golden-yellow cow out at the farm?
Dairyman—Oh, yes, ma'am.
City Wife—Well, I wish the next time you come in you would bring some of her butter. To tell the truth, we are a little tired of that from your white cows.

His Burden.
[From Fy'd-Bits.]

Miss Phister (to old Hollyhock)—Your son, Fred, is ill.
Hollyhock (testily)—Ill? He? Pooh-pooh!

Hollyhock (savagely)—So it is, and gracious he'd pick it up and take it off.
